ANDREW HULSEY

Introduced by Dorsey McRae as a "sportsman's sportsman," Andrew Hulsey, Director of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission, spoke to the Hope Rotary Club at their luncheon meeting last Friday at the Town and Country. He explained that a new balance of nature is created by natural disasters or by man. "Arkansas has been a leader in providing physical assets to sportsmen," he said. He stressed the necessity of good land management and the enforcement of laws dealing with the forests of Western Arkansas and their supply of deer and turkeys. In speaking of fishing waters of the area, he showed why "it takes money," and he urged maintenance of fishing sites when it is possible.

In addition to the speaker, other special guests were Ab Morgan, Donald Whiting, Bill White, Ben Walters, Fred Ward and Charlie Wilson, all connected with sports or the game and fish commission in some way. Vice - President Dick Moore presided over the meeting and welcomed one visiting Rotarian,

State Catches Up on Its Draft Quota

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Col. Willard Hawkins, state Selective Service director, said Saturday that Arkansas would be caught up on its draft quota by the end of May. Arkansas was 11 per cent under its quota during the first three months of this year, Hawkins said. He said the major reason for the lag was a drop to only 69 per cent of the quota in February. The national Selective Service headquarters has served notice that deficiencies in state quotas would have to be made up by August.

Judgment in Death Case Overturned

By BILL SIMMONS Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court reversed today a lower court decision to grant a divorce.

The unanimous opinion came on an appeal by Gean Lewis after her husband, J. C. Lewis, was granted a divorce by Chancellor Henry S. Yocum Jr. of El Dorado. Lewis filed his divorce suit on grounds of personal indignities after Mrs. Lewis petitioned the court for support maintenance and an order restraining Lewis from harming her.

Justice John A. Fogleman said in the high court's opinion that Lewis was not entitled to a divorce because Mrs. Lewis had grounds for divorce "equal in degree and validity" to those of her husband even though she did not ask for a divorce.

The Supreme Court sent the case back to the chancellor "for further proceedings not inconsistent with this opinion."

Fogleman said that marital difficulties between the Lewises was at least equally the fault of Lewis. Witnesses testified that Lewis used abusive language toward his wife and that she fussed at him frequently.

The Supreme Court cited an earlier ruling that the courts ought not to interfere on either side of a divorce case when the conduct of each party is "a constant aggravation to further offense by the other."

"It is not necessary to ... determine whether the conduct of either would be sufficient to warrant a divorce, provided the other was less guilty," the Supreme Court said in that earlier case. "It is immaterial for we find them about equally in fault, and an application of ... legal principle ... leaves neither in a position to demand the interposition of the court."

In another case, the Supreme Court reversed and dismissed a $22,890 judgment against a railroad for alleged negligence in connection with a collision that resulted in a motorist's death.

The judgment was awarded by a jury in Union County Circuit Court to Laverne Gray, whose husband was killed when his car was struck by a Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Co. freight train at a crossing on South Jackson Road about five miles south of El Dorado.

Thunderstorms Lash Arkansas on Weekend

Following a weekend of unsettled weather, the threat of severe thunderstorms and tornadoes has finally ended in Arkansas.

A stationary front which has been located in Southern Arkansas began diminishing this morning and the Weather Bureau said that the state's weather would be dominated by a high pressure ridge in the Gulf of Mexico.

This will cause a southerly flow of air and a chance of showers again by Tuesday or Wednesday, the bureau said.

Rivers in the state continued cresting Sunday and there was some flooding as a result of last week's heavy rains, the bureau said.

The bureau said locks and dams had handled the high-water situation on the Arkansas River but owners of small boats were warned to remain off the river.

Highs Sunday ranged from 77 at Texarkana to 84 at Fort Smith.

Overnight lows included 68 at Fayetteville, Jonesboro, Pine Bluff, El Dorado and Little Rock, 66 at Harrison, 70 at Texarkana, 69 at Memphis and 67 at Fort Smith.

Precipitation for the 24-hour period which ended at 7 a.m. today included a trace at Jonesboro.

WOULD LIMIT (from page one)

in Cambodia and they're the same people we're fighting in South Vietnam," Griffin said.

Shipments of small arms to Cambodia, he said, would help that nation's small army defend themselves against the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces.

If the North Vietnamese troops can be defeated or checked in Cambodia, Griffin reasoned, "It seems to me our American boys can come home sooner and it would be easier for President Nixon to keep his commitment of 150,000 troop withdrawn within the next year."

Griffin said he was opposed to sending troops to Cambodia and "leery" of permitting American advisers to accompany Cambodian forces, but the United States should remain flexible on the question of air strikes, Griffin spoke on the CBS radio-television program "Face the Nation."

Muskie, however, retorted that Griffin's reasoning represents "that kind of elusive temptation (that) has influenced our thinking before in Southeast Asia."

Congress May Adjourn by Labor Day

By WALTER R. MEARS AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) —

Spurred by the prospect of re-election campaigns, Congress is handling its 1970 business at a pace its leaders believe may get the House and Senate out of town before Labor Day.

That hasn't happened in a decade.

"It looks reasonably good," said Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield. "We're keeping up to schedule."

But he added that extended debate over Electoral College reform, military spending or issues now unforeseen "could knock our plans into a cocked hat. If it happens, it happens. I've got my fingers crossed."

There are major, time-consuming issues ahead, particularly the second phase of the debate about the Safeguard anti-ballistic missile system and President Nixon's welfare reform plan.

"Those two will hold transcendent interest," Mansfield said. The House, which limits debate, has passed the welfare bill, and will act first on the Pentagon weapons-buying measure that includes the ABM. The missile defense issue produced a summertime marathon debate in the Senate last year. Mansfield said he doubted the renewed argument would last as long.

At this point, leaders on both sides of the Capitol have decided informally to skip an August vacation this year. Members took three weeks off last August, but that wasn't an election year.

Mansfield said it will not be necessary to schedule any post election session of a Congress that didn't adjourn its first session until Dec. 23, 1969.

A major holdup in the first session came on appropriations bills. Not one of the money measures was law by July 1, the bookkeeping new year's day for the government.

This time, Mansfield said he hopes most of the appropriations bills will be enacted before the start of the fiscal year. He acknowledged appropriations for the Defense and Welfare departments probably won't make that deadline.

Actress Anita Louise Dies at Age of 55

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Anita Louise, an actress for 50 years and a noted partygirl in a town of partygivers, has died at 55.

She had a pre-Oscars party for 300 April 4 at her Holmby Hills house. Friends said she had complained of migraine headaches during the past week but hadn't seemed ill.

A doctor ordered sedation for a headache Saturday shortly before she died of a stroke, a family spokesman said.

In recent years Miss Louise, who retained a stately bearing and blonde good looks, had appeared on episodes of the "Manix" and "Mod Squad" television series. She was a regular in the "My Friend Flicka" series of the 1950s.

Gypsy Rose Lee, Stripper, Dies at 56

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gypsy Rose Lee, famed strip-tease performer and long time "Queen of burlesque" who became an author, stage and screen actress and show-business celebrity, died Sunday of cancer.

Death came at the University of California Medical Center here where she was admitted a few days ago.

She was 56. Still in her teens, a seasoned vaudeville performer, she made her New York debut as a stripper at Minsky's.

Her first big break was in the Ziegfeld Follies of 1937, where she climaxed her nightly performance by tossing her garter belt into the orchestra pit. At the New York World's Fair of 1939, she earned as much as $4,000 a week.

Miss Lee later became a writer of novels, in the first of which, "The G-String Murder Mystery," a stripper is strangled with her own G-string.

She also turned actress in summer and winter stock and in movies. In her first film, in 1938, she was billed by her real name, Louise Hovick. "The Stigma, I guess," she explained, referring to her strip-tease career. But by 1962, billed as Gypsy Rose Lee for the screen, she laughed, "I guess the stigma has gone."

In 1966 Miss Lee began her own nationally syndicated television talk show, commuting to a San Francisco studio by plane from her home in Beverly Hills.

In her stripping days, the shapely Gypsy once said, "Bare flesh bores men. Censors insist on covering up a girl's navel, the least glamorous portion of her anatomy. In Boston they made me put a rhinestone in mine."

She had little censor trouble, for her act was more tease than strip. "I never try to stir up the animal in 'em," she once told writer J.P. McEvoy in Variety and the Reader's Digest. "Did you ever hold a piece of candy or a toy in front of a baby—just out of his reach? Notice how he laughs? That's your strip audience."

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — Television viewers were offered a varied menu of special programs over the weekend. At one end was Raquel Welch's first television special, on CBS Sunday night, and at the other was Saturday night's NBC "White Paper," a moving report on mental illness among adolescents.

"Cry Help," as the 90-minute NBC program was called, was filmed primarily in a California mental hospital where a few of the young patients were selected for special, intensive therapy. The TV program concentrated on two patients, a shy girl named Gloria who had withdrawn into her own world of fantasy, and an aggressive girl, Debbie, who directed hostility at herself as well as her family.

In the therapy sessions, the patients talked about their fears and angers. Particularly revealing were the parents of the patients, talking with painful frankness of their perplexity and feeling of helplessness in dealing with the children.

By program's end, marked improvement in the patients' conditions could be seen, although complete recovery was not insured. The program reported that millions of American children are beset by emotional problems and only a few are receiving psychiatric help.

It was a big subject to tackle in a relatively short program and could only shed a little light, but it was done with intelligence and sympathy.

"Raquel" was one of those overproduced, overcostumed and overloud productions, apparently designed to further enlarge Miss Welch's image as sex-symbol and movie star. The larger-than-life lady appeared before such larger-than-life monuments as the Mayan ruins in Mexico, the Cathedral of Notre Dame and an ancient English castle. She dressed as a lady of Camelot, a Parisian gamine and apparently a human sacrifice in an old Mexican ritual. There was a wriggling number with Tom Jones; a comedy number with Bob Hope that did not have a single chuckle in it; and something about a horse with John Wayne who looked awfully uncomfortable.

Miss Welch may be the possessor of the most interesting female architecture since Marilyn Monroe, but her first TV special was simply a pretentious disaster—unless it was done as camp. In that case, it was just long, dull and heavy handed.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

SHE DREW A BLANK

Dear Helen:

We've been married four years. My husband isn't a bad guy, but he just won't talk. I really believe he doesn't care about anything others have to say. He was quiet before marriage, but I thought he'd change.

It's not unusual for people meeting him the first time to wonder if he's sick or angry. Those who know him don't try to get him into a conversation. They just ignore him.

Recently he has started leaving notes at my place at the table, rather than talk to me. I have tried it his way, but we could go for weeks and if I didn't break the silence it might never be broken.

When we go out to dinner, we just sit and stare unless I can think of something to say, and I soon run down with no help. He dislikes going out.

I've told him how unhappy his wordlessness makes me, and he seems surprised because he likes things this way. Could you without communication, love soon leaves?—UNWILLING SILENT WIFE

Dear USW:

"He was this way before marriage but I thought he'd change." When will you gals ever learn that the pre-nuptial man is on his BEST behavior. Flaws apparent in him then are almost sure to worsen after the wedding.

...And this works both ways. Perhaps your husband is wondering how he can quiet you down. If you don't reach some sort of compromise (via therapy or counseling) I see little hope for your marriage.—H.

Dear Helen: My husband John and I are in our late 60s, retired, after 50 years of marriage, and we don't have one single mutual interest.

He likes to hunt and fish. I delect both, but have gone along all these years. But now time is getting short. I'd like to do a few of the things I've always yearned to do: Travel a bit, go out to dinner with friends, be sociable. We can afford these "luxuries."

Throughout our lives, I've been the buffer. When John didn't want to do something, I took the blame, until even our children said, "Poor Daddy, he'd go, but Mother doesn't want to." I wanted to build Daddy up as perfect in their eyes, but I did it at my expense.

Last week our married children wanted to take us to a showplace 120 miles away for a night out. John said "Jane doesn't want to go." I protested, but they all assumed I was just being polite, so we didn't go.

If I want to visit friends, there's always some excuse, but when we see them next, it's "Well, you know, Jane is such a homebody."

I don't drink, but sometimes I'd like to get so drunk I could say all the things I've held back through the years. It's bad enough to do nothing, but taking the blame for it, too, is too much.

I've always been one who can manage her own problems, but this is getting too much. Is there a chance for a little living before I die?—JANE

Dear Jane: Why don't you bust loose, announce that you're going on an extended trip (to Europe, Mexico, Japan—whatever) and if John wants to come along, fine, but if he doesn't, you're still making reservations? (I'm sure you can find a woman friend willing to go in his place.) You are healthy, young enough, and long overdue for rebellion.

Happy travelling... And happy "speaking out" when you return home!—H.

Girls, Boys Wade Naked at Rock Meet

POYNETTE, Wis. (AP) — Some of the girls and boys stripped naked and waded in a creek. A vacant farm house burned down. More than 150 persons were treated for minor injuries or misuse of drugs.

But, said Sheriff Vernon Golz, "For the most part they've been very good."

Weekend attendance at the Poynette rock music festival was estimated at 20,000 Saturday and more than 20,000 Sunday. The crowd paid up to $12 a head for the camping, picnics, sunbathing and amplified music by about 40 rock groups.

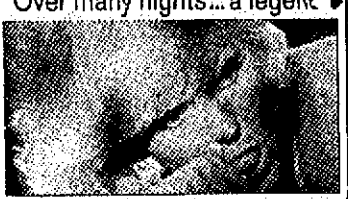

Golz said the fire which burned the empty house apparently broke out accidentally in a festival patron's parked car.

He added that there were fewer arrests than expected—"we took only about 15 into custody."

Knicks and Lakers in 2nd Playoff Game

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — It hurts Willis Reed a little. Ooh, it hurts Willis Chamberlain a little more. And, frankly, Keith Erickson's ankle isn't feeling so hot.

But the agonized athletes will assemble anyway tonight in Madison Square Garden for the second game of the National Basketball Association playoffs between New York and Los Angeles.

Reed, who hurt his left shoulder while leading New York to a 124-112 opening game victory Friday night, said it was still a little sore but the pain has eased.

Chamberlain, Los Angeles' sky-jacking center who missed 70 games this season after knee surgery, is apparently not 100 per cent yet. He appeared unwilling or unable to dog Reed around the court Friday night, giving the Knicks' crack shot plenty of scoring chances.

Chamberlain, also bothered by chronic arthritic knees, mapped strategy with Laker Coach Joe Mullaney to defense Reed. Mullaney promised a few surprises.

Erickson, who teams with Elgin Baylor at forward for the Lakers, twisted an ankle Friday night. But doctors pumped cortisone into the foot and though not without pain, he was expected to start tonight.

Coach Red Holzman of the Knicks, who spent some tension-filled hours over the weekend while doctors nurtured Reed with heat treatments and cortisone shots, appeared relieved.

"He's all right," said Holzman of Reed, the main spring of the Knicks' go-power, "... and so is his shooting."

Reed also has aching knees—a condition he's suffered with all season.

The series switches to Los Angeles for games three and four Wednesday and Friday after tonight's affair, sure to attract a full house of 19,500.

Nets Rebound, Knock Off Kentucky

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The home cooking turned sour for the New York Nets—but, oh, that southern meal!

The Nets, rebounding from their worst home loss ever, knocked off Kentucky 127-112 at Louisville Sunday in the American Basketball Association playoffs.

New York now leads 3-2 the best-of-7 Eastern Division semifinals that resume in Louisville Tuesday.

In the Western Division Sunday night, Los Angeles dumped Dallas 124-123 to take their semifinal series, 4-2.

Billy Melchionni scored a game-high 39 points as the Nets rebounded from last Wednesday's 120-101 thumping by the Colonels in New York.

Kentucky led only once in the game, then for just a brief time in the second period, Kentucky went ahead 31-30 in the second stanza on a 12-foot shot by Louie Dampier, but then New York went out in front again on two free throws by Melchionni.

Then Billy The Kid combined with teammate Walt Simon for 22 points to give the Nets an insurmountable 80-64 lead. Simon scored 31 points in the game.

Gene Moore scored 29 points and Jim Ligon added 25 for the Colonels.

Craig Raymond led Los Angeles' victory, scoring a tip-in bucket with 43 seconds left, then blocking a shot by Dallas' Cincy Powell with 5 seconds on the clock.

Raymond's clutch basket pulled the Stars through in a game that produced 27 changes of lead and 17 ties, the last when Mack Calvin hit a free throw with 1:07 to play to knot it at 122.

After Dallas missed several opportunities to take the lead on misfired field goals, Raymond nudged in Merv Jackson's 20-foot toss for the winning shot.

Powell sank a free throw seconds later, but missed a five-footer when Raymond deflected the ball and grabbed it as time ran out.

Draft Choice Signs With the Steelers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Terry Bradshaw, the No. 1 pick in last year's college football draft, has signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers, a team whose brightest moment last season was winning a coin flip.

The 21-year-old quarterback appeared at a mock signing Saturday at Pittsburgh's new Three Rivers Stadium, still under construction.

"The only thing we're saying is that it's a multiple year agreement," said Steeler Vice-President Dan Rooney, who called the coin toss that gave the Steelers instead of the Chicago Bears the right to pick first in the draft. Both teams finished the season with 1-14 records.

"We weren't demanding a lot and we stuck by our principles," said Bradshaw, who won Little All-American honors at Louisiana Tech. "We never ran into a problem."

Bradshaw, a native of Shreveport, La., will be competing for the starting quarterback job with second-year man Terry Hanratty and veterans Dick Shiner and Kent Nix.

Picayune Coins

A picayune was the term for certain U.S. coins of small value. It has come to symbolize something of small value, as in the phrase, "not worth a picayune."

Astroturf Picked for Stadium

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Monsanto's AstroTurf is the artificial surface that has been selected for War Memorial Stadium here.

Stadium manager Howard Pearce said that 69,000 square feet of the AstroTurf will be installed in the stadium this summer.

Tigers Shut Out, Chisox Beat Indians

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The green, green grass of home did in Dean Chance and the Cleveland Indians Sunday but the Minnesota air seems to be working wonders for Luis Tiant.

Chance and Tiant were the key figures in a six-player swap between the Indians and Twins last winter. Both pitched well Sunday but came out on opposite ends of the won-lost spectrum.

Chance, 1-2, scattered nine hits in eight innings, walking two and striking out seven but the Indians lost to the Chicago White Sox 2-0, with the high grass at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium affecting two key infield hits.

Tiant, meanwhile, ran his record to 3-0—he was a dismal 9-10 a year ago—by shutting out the Detroit Tigers on three singles, 6-0. He also stroked a double and two singles, stole a base—third base, no less—and knocked in a run.

Elsewhere in the American League, Baltimore made it 14 straight over Kansas City 10-9, California shaded Washington 3-2 and then traded Rick Reichardt and Aurelio Rodriguez to the Senators for Ken McMullen, Milwaukee tripped Boston 5-3 and the New York Yankees drubbed Oakland 8-3 for Mel Stottlemyre's first victory.

In the National League, it was St. Louis 4, Cincinnati 1; the Chicago Cubs 6, Houston 3; the New York Mets 3, Los Angeles 1; Atlanta 2, Pittsburgh 0, and San Francisco 11, Montreal 1 in their double-header opener. The Expos won the nightcap 3-2.

The White Sox nicked Chance for single runs in the second and third innings. The first scored on Joe Horlen's slow bouncer down the third base line which was allowed to roll and stayed fair. In the third, Luis Aparicio bunted safely down the third base line, took third on a double by Carlos May and scored on Buddy Bradford's sacrifice fly.

"There was nothing I could do about either one," said a disgruntled Graig Nettles, the Cleveland third baseman. "I was completely frustrated. I guess all I can do is play closer if they're going to keep the grass here as long as it is."

Head groundskeeper Harold Bossard admitted the grass is too long and the ground too soft, adding: "But what can I do? Our hands were tied. We couldn't do anything to the infield before this because it has been either too wet or we've had to put the tarpaulin down. But now, with the Indians on the road for 10 days, we'll get the grass cut."

Leading 1-0, Tiant triggered Minnesota's four-run sixth inning with an RBI double, then swiped third and scored on Cesar Tovar's infield single. Harmon Killebrew drove in two runs, each with a single.

Don Buford's three-run homer in the eighth inning carried Baltimore to victory and nullified Kansas City's comeback from a five-run first-inning deficit. The Royals haven't beaten the Orioles since taking a 4-2 decision last May 9 in the first meeting of the teams.

Brooks Robinson drove in four runs for the Birds and Dave Johnson hit a two-run homer. Ed Kirkpatrick and Bob Oliver connected for Kansas City, the latter with two on.

Before the California-Washington trade, Rodriguez crossed the plate with an unearned run on Sandy Alomar's eighth-inning double. That gave the Angels a 3-0 lead, enough to withstand Mike Epstein's two-run homer in the last of the eighth.

Gene Brabender's strong hurling and a three-run uprising in the eighth, highlighted by Max Alvis' two-run single, enabled Milwaukee to hold off Boston. Gerry Moses hit a two-run homer for the Red Sox in the ninth.

Jerry Kennedy, who broke a long hitless drought with a fifth-inning homer, looped a two-run single in the sixth as the Yankees rallied for four runs to beat Oakland. Bobby Murcer wrapped it up with a two-run shot in the eighth. Don Mincher homered for the losers.

AM&N Second in Drake Relays Race

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Thomas Hill of Arkansas State University won the 120-yard hurdles at the Drake Relays here Saturday tying a previous record of 13.6.

ASU distance runner Bob Gray finished fifth in the steeplechase with a time of 9:14.4.

Niekro Gets Knuckleball to Working

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
The butterfly that lives in Phil Niekro's knuckleball is back in business after taking an exasperating two-week vacation.

Niekro's knuckler, normally one of the most puzzling pitches National League batters must face, was no mystery until Sunday when the Atlanta ace mowed down Pittsburgh 2-0 on a two-hitter.

In his first four starts, Niekro and his flutterless flutterball had been racked for 30 hits, 11 home runs, a 7.78 earned run average and four straight losses. The butterfly, obviously, was out of town.

But everything fell in place for Niekro Sunday. He pitched hitless ball for 6 2-3 innings and completely baffled the powerful Pirates with his rested and rejuvenated knuckler dancing all over the place.

Elsewhere Sunday, New York topped Los Angeles 3-1, St. Louis dropped Cincinnati 4-1, Chicago whipped Houston 6-3, Philadelphia edged San Diego 3-2 and San Francisco split a doubleheader with Montreal, winning 11-1 before losing 3-2.

In the American League, it was New York 8, Oakland 3; Minnesota 6, Detroit 0; Chicago 2, Cleveland 0; Milwaukee 5, Boston 3; Washington 2 and Baltimore 10, Kansas City 9.

Although it had no trouble with the Pirates, Niekro's returning butterfly couldn't solve the Forbes Field no-hit jinx. No pitcher has ever achieved a hitless game in the 61-year history of the park which the Pirates will vacate next month for their new Riverfront Stadium. Niekro defied the jinx until a two-out error in the seventh gave Manny Sanguillen a swing and the catcher's single broke up the no-hit bid.

Tommie Aaron cracked four straight hits including a homer and double which accounted for both Brave runs.

Niekro missed his no-hitter but New York's Tom Seaver got his—a perfect one too—if you don't mind your classics spread over two games.

Seaver, who had retired the last 16 batters in order—a record-breaking 10 on strikes—against San Diego last Wednesday, knocked off the first 11 Dodgers Sunday. That gave him 27 consecutive batters retired, the equivalent of a perfecto.

The Met ace settled for a six-hitter with home runs by Donn Clendenon and Mike Jorgensen pacing the attack. Bud Harrelson stole three bases including home for the Mets, who ended a 30-inning runless streak.

The victory was the 14th straight over two seasons for Seaver.

Bob Gibson throttled Cincinnati on five hits, striking out 15 for his strongest performance of the season as the Cards beat the Reds.

Gibson, knocked out in each of his first two starts, fanned six Reds in order over one stretch and Lou Brock's three singles led the St. Louis offense.

Ron Santo busted out of a slump with a grand slam homer and Billy Williams and Jim Hickman had solo shots leading the streaking Cubs past Houston.

Santo's sixth inning slam doubled his runs batted in total for

Wrestling Here Wed.

Championship wrestling returns to Hope next Wednesday night, April 29, at 8 o'clock in the Fair Park Coliseum.

The main event will see, for the first time here, a world's championship bout when Champ Hodge puts his gold belt on the line against Japan's Mr. Oo.

The semifinals event pairs popular Cowboy Bruce Kirk against Japan's Mr. Eto and the first bout pairs Treach Phillips and Cisco Gramaldi of Mexico.

This promises to be the finest wrestling card ever to come here and tickets are on sale at Town and Country restaurant. The ticket office opens at 6 p. m. at the Coliseum. Ringside is $2; general admission is $1.50 and children under 12 years of age $1.

MR. OTO

The victory ran the Cubs' winning streak to 10 games—all at home. Chicago starts a road trip in Pittsburgh tonight.

The Giants destroyed Montreal with homers in the first game of their doubleheader, getting grand slams from Willie McCovey and Dick Dietz and bases-empty shots by McCovey and Bobby Bonds.

Mike McCormick rode the heavy hitting to a three-hit victory.

Rookie Carl Morton earned his first major league victory for the Expos in the nightcap, with a double and triple by Mack Jones keying the Expo offense.

Jones tripled and scored on Rusty Staub's single in the first and doubled home what turned out to be Montreal's winning run in the fifth. Ken Henderson had a two-run homer for the Giants.

Pinch hitter Rick Joseph tripped home the tying run in the eighth inning and scored on Tony Taylor's pinch single, lifting the Phillies past the Padres, Dick Selma, working in relief of winner Chris Short, blanked San Diego in the last two innings for his third save in as many games.

Arkansas' Sikes Picks Up $987

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—R. H. Sikes of Springdale, Ark., won $987 after finishing the fourth round of the $50,000 Tallahassee Open here Sunday with a 284.

Sikes shot a 71 Sunday.

Harold Henning won the tournament and the top prize of $10,000 with a total of 277.

Reds Defeat Whites in Hog Game

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Reds overcame a 16-13 half-time deficit and defeated the Whites 23-16 at the annual Arkansas Razorback Red-White game here Saturday.

Sophomore Joe Ferguson completed 18 of 32 passes and ran for one touchdown for the Red team.

Ferguson, a 6-1, 170 pounder from Shreveport, La., hit passes of 17 yards to Pat Morrison and 12 yards to Jon Richardson to set up a 50-yard field goal by Bill McClard.

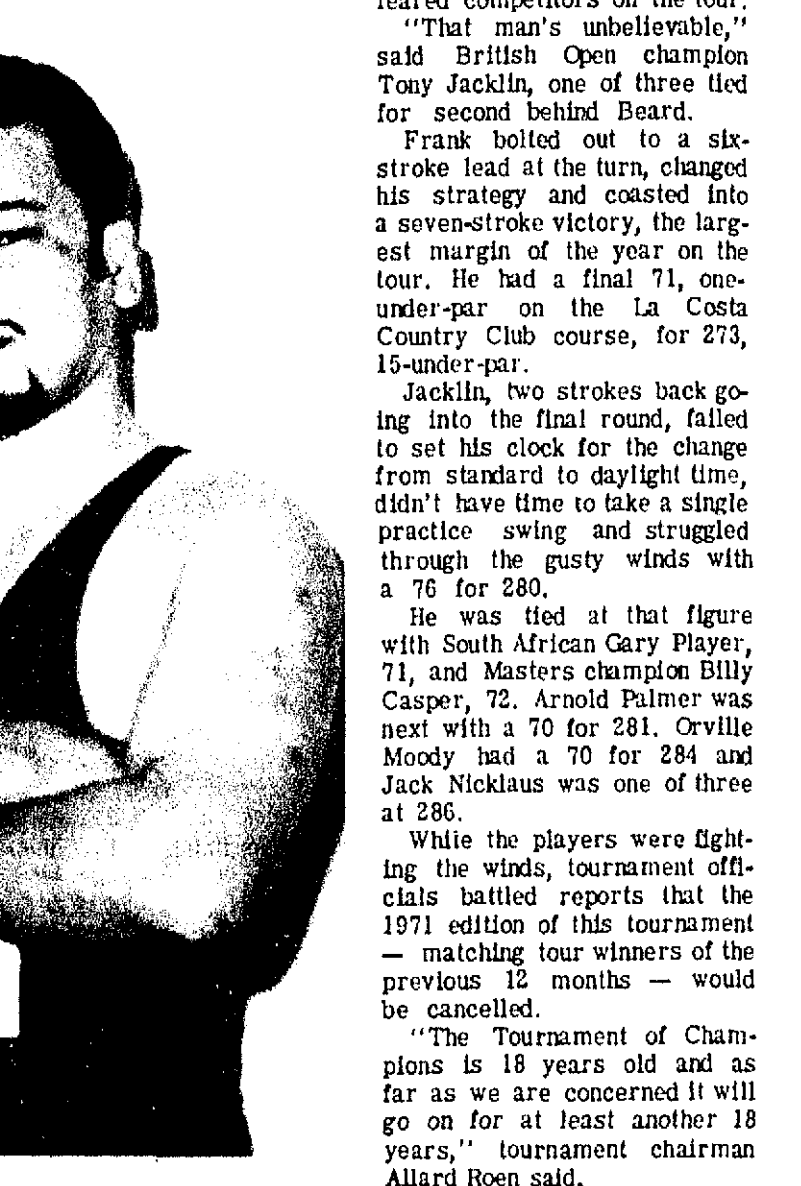

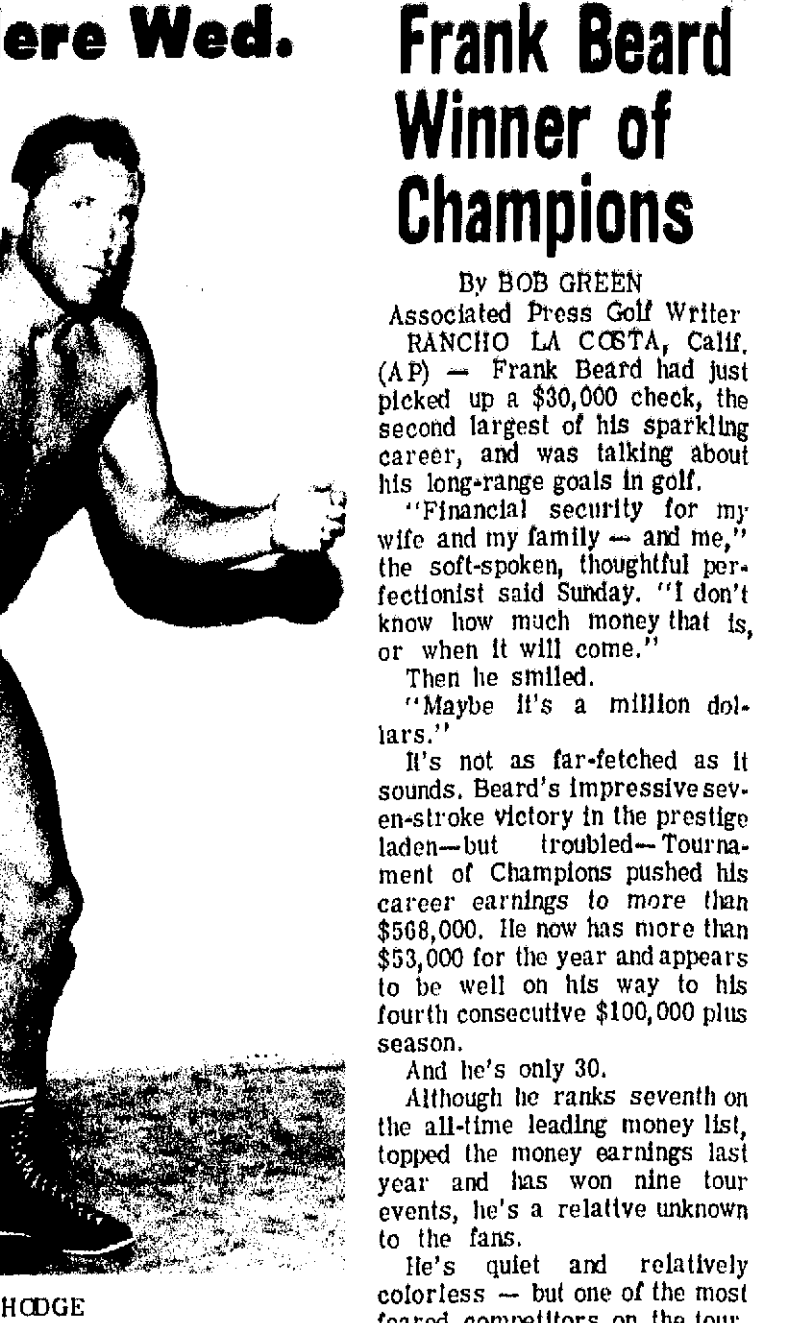

Quarterback Bill Montgomery, who directed Arkansas to 19 wins in two seasons, rallied the Whites for a 68-yard, nine-play drive that gave the Whites the halftime lead.

Barber Takes $2,088 at the Masters

RANCHO LA COSTA, Calif. (AP)—Miller Barber of Texarkana, Tex., fired a 77 in the fourth round of the $150,000 Tournament of Champions here Sunday for a total of 298.

Barber's share of the cash prize was $2,088.

Tournament winner, Frank Beard, won the top $30,000 prize after shooting a 71 Sunday, making his total 273.

Beard, however, was concerned only with Jacklin — and not long with him.

"I birdied eight and nine and Tony bogeyed one of them, which gave me a three-stroke turn around. That put me six strokes ahead and I seriously altered my game on the back nine," Beard said.

"I was shooting for the mid dle of the green, just trying for pars. That's the way I am. I figured if I par in — and pars aren't too hard to make — he has to shoot 30 to catch me."

"Maybe it sounds silly to change your game at that time, but I think it's the other way around."

Frank Beard Winner of Champions

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
RANCHO LA COSTA, Calif. (AP) — Frank Beard had just picked up a $30,000 check, the second largest of his sparkling career, and was talking about his long-range goals in golf.

"Financial security for my wife and my family — and me," the soft-spoken, thoughtful perfectionist said Sunday. "I don't know how much money that is, or when it will come."

Then he smiled.

"Maybe it's a million dollars."

It's not as far-fetched as it sounds. Beard's impressive seven-stroke victory in the prestige laden—but troubled—Tournament of Champions pushed his career earnings to more than $508,000. He now has more than $53,000 for the year and appears to be well on his way to his fourth consecutive $100,000 plus season.

And he's only 30.

Although he ranks seventh on the all-time leading money list, topped the money earnings last year and has won nine tour events, he's a relative unknown to the fans.

He's quiet and relatively colorless — but one of the most feared competitors on the tour.

"That man's unbelievable," said British Open champion Tony Jacklin, one of three tied for second behind Beard.

Frank bolted out to a six-stroke lead at the turn, changed his strategy and coasted into a seven-stroke victory, the largest margin of the year on the tour. He had a final 71, one-under-par on the La Costa Country Club course, for 273, 15-under-par.

Jacklin, two strokes back going into the final round, failed to set his clock for the change from standard to daylight time, didn't have time to take a single practice swing and struggled through the gusty winds with a 76 for 280.

He was tied at that figure with South African Gary Player, 71, and Masters champion Billy Casper, 72. Arnold Palmer was next with a 70 for 281. Orville Moody had a 70 for 284 and Jack Nicklaus was one of three at 286.

While the players were fighting the winds, tournament officials battled reports that the 1971 edition of this tournament — matching tour winners of the previous 12 months — would be cancelled.

"The Tournament of Champions is 18 years old and as far as we are concerned it will go on for at least another 18 years," tournament chairman Allard Roen said.

"We have not been notified of any action to cancel our tournament by the tournament players division or its commissioner, Joe Dey."

But a petition appeared in the players' locker room and was signed by more than two dozen players, including Palmer, Moody, Player and Lee Trevino, which said, in part:

"We, the undersigned, petition the committee to reconsider their decision regarding cancellation of the tournament of champions."

There had been numerous other reports that the tournament would be canceled next year. It's contract expired this season.

Beard, however, was concerned only with Jacklin — and not long with him.

"I birdied eight and nine and Tony bogeyed one of them, which gave me a three-stroke turn around. That put me six strokes ahead and I seriously altered my game on the back nine," Beard said.

"I was shooting for the mid dle of the green, just trying for pars. That's the way I am. I figured if I par in — and pars aren't too hard to make — he has to shoot 30 to catch me."

"Maybe it sounds silly to change your game at that time, but I think it's the other way around."

Kentucky Derby Next Saturday

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE (AP) — The hopes—and doubts—began building in earnest today as the world of thoroughbred racing focused its attention on Churchill Downs—the home of next Saturday's Kentucky Derby.

And there were more hopes and doubts than usual, with a field of 18 to 20 3-year-olds shaping up for the $100,000-added, 1 1/4-mile classic. If 18 start, it will be the biggest field since Tony Lee defeated 16 rivals in 1959.

Support was solid for Raymond M. Curtis' My Dad George and Samuel J. Agnew's Teriago after Curtis' Flamingo and Florida Derby winner defeated Agnew's Santa Anita Derby victor by a neck Saturday in the seven-furlong Steeple Stone Purse at the Downs.

But there was some doubt in the camp of George Lewis after the California Derby winner coughed a little as he returned to his barn after working a half mile in 48 seconds.

"I don't think it was anything serious," said owner Alan Magernan. "It could have been the same thing as we do when we cough to clear our throats in the morning."

Magernan also said trainer Buster Millerick has decided to send George Lewis in Tuesday's one-mile Derby Trial which hasn't produced a Derby winner since Tito Tam in 1959.

Things were also looking bright for John Jacobs who trains Personality and High Echelon for his mother, Ethel. Jacobs was delighted Sunday after Personality, the Wood Memorial winner, worked seven furlongs in 1:26 3/5 and galloped over a mile in 1:39 2/5 and High Echelon went a half in 1:15 1/5 and galloped over five furlongs in 1:03 1/5.

High Echelon also will go in the Derby Trial.

Another trainer who was pleased Sunday was Bowes Bond who conditions Sonny Werblin's Silent Screen, the 1969 juvenile champion who has been disappointing this year but finished second in the Wood.

"That's a step in the right direction," Bond said after Silent Screen went 1 1/8 miles in 1:53 2/5.

Time is the killing factor as far as trainer Loyd Gentry is concerned when it comes to the Derby chances for Walter Kitchen's Supreme Quality.

After watching the colt work a half mile in 47 flat, Gentry said, "If I just had another month to get ready, it would be something else. But I guess we'll probably be thrown out of here after Tuesday (the Derby Trial)."

Also scheduled to go in the Derby Trial are the Wolfson brothers' Native Royalty and W. L. Brown's Fathom.

Other probabilities for the Derby, to be telecast and broadcast nationally by CBS, are Benjamin and Jones' Action Getter, Charles Windle's Cassie Red, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gary's Corn Off The Cob, Mrs. J.S. Dean's Holy Land, Robert Lehmann's Dust Commander, Cecil Carimne's Kadan, Winston Neil's Villager, Lin-Drake Stable's Dr. Behrman and Charles Engelhard's Protanto, Her-Jac Stable's Naskra and W. C. Robinson Jr.'s Admiral's Shield.

By MICHAEL LUTZ
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The road Andres Gimeno of Spain took to the singles championship in the Dallas Morning News Tennis Classic started out with an auto accident.

The friendly Spaniard man-handled Roy Emerson of Australia 6-2, 6-3, 6-2 in Sunday's finale, continuing to play despite a fractured rib and a bruised hip suffered in an auto accident on the opening night of the tournament.

And after Gimeno collected his $5,000 first prize money, he said he didn't have much time to think about his pain in the title match.

"When you're playing such a tough match as this, you don't feel pain," Gimeno said. "You just play to win and fight for the championship."

Gimeno had more than physical obstacles to overcome in winning the title. He upended second-seeded John Newcombe of Australia in his opening match and defeated third-seeded Tony Roche of Australia in the semifinals.

Dallas teaching pro Warren Jacques and Emerson upset second-seeded Ken Rosewall and Fred Stolle of Australia, 6-4, 6-8, 6-4 in the doubles finale. The winners will split $1,600 and the runner-up team gets $1,000.

Emerson got $2,500 for his runner-up finish in the singles. Gimeno's injury was true to the tournament's format. Four other players withdrew from the tournament because of physical ailments.

Pancho Gonzalez withdrew before the first round because of fatigue. Tom Okker didn't make it to the first round because of a back injury.

Top-seeded Rod Laver of Australia withdrew after spraining his ankle in the first round and Butch Buchholz had to default his first round match because of a muscle tear.

Racing Driver Says He Is Patriotic

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
There are 25 stars painted on the red, white and blue car Lloyd Ruby is driving on the USAC championship trail this year, and there's also a great big Apollo XII sign on the nose cone.

Why the stars? "We're patriotic," drawled the 43-year-old Wichita Falls, driver. "You'll also notice that six of the stars carry the names of big car races I've won. We hope to fill the remaining stars before the season is over."

Ruby filled one of the blank spaces Sunday when he drove the low-slung turbo-charged Offenhauser to victory in the $76,500 Trenton 200, knocking off such younger drivers as Mario Andretti, the Unser brothers, Al and Bobby, and Wally Dallenbach in the process.

Ruby picked up the Apollo XII designation with the blessings of moon astronauts Pete Conrad, Dick Gordon and Alan Bean. The three have no financial interest in the car but all will work at times in Ruby's crew during the month of May at Indianapolis. Conrad also is a licensed race driver.

The car is owned by Gene White, an Atlanta tire distributor, and sponsored by Denver businessman Bill Daniels. Daniels is a close friend of the Apollo 12 astronauts and, incidentally, of President Nixon.

"With all of these people behind me, all I have to do is drive the car," said Ruby. And drive he did at Trenton Sunday.

Biding his time while Andretti, Al Unser and Dallenbach fought a heated duel up front, Ruby didn't make his move until shortly after the halfway point over the kidney-shaped 1 1/2-mile Trenton Fairgrounds Speedway. He sailed around leader Andretti on the 104th Circuit and drove the rest of the way without serious challenge.

Andretti came in second in his STP Hawk Ford, the car he used to capture both races at Trenton last year. Al Unser finished third, also in a Ford, while brother Bobby Unser came in fourth and Mike Mosely fifth.

Ruby's speed for the race was 135.987 miles per hour and his share of the purse was about $14,000. It was his first victory since winning a 150-mile at Milwaukee in 1968.

Two other key auto races during the weekend were postponed because of bad weather.

The 250-mile event for NASCAR Grand National stock car drivers at Martinsville, Va., was rescheduled for next Sunday. Richard Petty's Plymouth will be on the pole.

The second race in the Trans-American series for small sporty cars Camaros, Javelins, Mustangs was rained out at Dallas. No new date was announced for it, but the sponsoring Sports Car Club of America said it probably will be in mid-summer.

Jethro Pugh and George Andrie of the Dallas Cowboys football team, were the final speakers of the Yerger Junior High School Symposium, "Opportunities in the 70's."

Pugh, defensive tackle for the Cowboys and a graduate of Ellis-

Andrie, defensive end for the Dallas team and a graduate of Marquette University in Wisconsin, spoke on "The Heard and Silent Majority." He made plain that he favored the silent majority and told his audience to "Keep on digging and one day you'll be there." Both players received a standing ovation. They were introduced by Bud McLarty.

This assembly brought to a close the publicized symposium, "Opportunities in the 70's." Some of the past speakers on the symposium have been: Arkansas Razorback players Bill Montgomery and Gordon McNulty; Dr. James Dusek, Jerry, Sam Sparks, Ted Cameron, Pat Walendoff, Frank Hiegle, Ray Lawrence, Rev. James Sewell, Talbot Feld, Jr., John Robert Graves and now Andrie and Pugh. The Henry Shed Trio provided an entertainment program during the symposium.

The purpose of the programs was to enlighten the students on some of the leading careers they might attain in their later years, including: sports, entertainment, religion, business, radio and television, law and politics. The student council feels that this goal has been achieved and would like to thank Radio Station KXAR and the Hope Star for the fine publicity received; the Hope Public School Administration; Supt. James H. Jones, Principal Rutherford and Mr. Cook for their approval of the symposium and for the support they gave to it.

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor
Alex. H. Washburn
Attention,
Railroad Buffs;
Newsprint Story

Here's a note from Clifton E. Hull, 203 E. 16th St., North Little Rock, Ark. 72114:

Editor The Star: Anyone having information, history, or photos of early railroad days please write me at above address.

I am beginning the long and tedious task of gathering information for a history of the main-line railroads in Arkansas. This will be a companion to my "Short-Line Railroads in Arkansas," published by University of Oklahoma Press in August 1969.

Do you (asking a question of The Star) have a file of back-issue papers which I may use for research? If so, at what date do they begin? Also do you have a file of photos which I may copy? I do my own photo work. Any help will be appreciated.

GENE HULL

Editor's note: The Star has bound files dating back to the first issue of the old Star of Hope, Oct. 14, 1899 — converted to microfilm beginning with 1967 — but no loose copies, of course. It isn't likely this newspaper's reports would shed much light on early railroad in view of our late starting date, 1899. The first railroad, Cairo & Fulton, later called the Iron Mountain, and now the Missouri Pacific, came through here in 1873, 16 years before the founding of the old Star of Hope.

And as to railroad photographs, we have none.

Some statistical tables bracket Arkansas with Mississippi at the bottom of the 50 states, but there's one category in which this isn't true — the use of newsprint, the coarse white paper on which newspapers are printed.

Arkansas outranks at least 10 states in annual consumption of newsprint, according to the American Newspaper Publishers association report on 1969.

Arkansas papers used 31,110 tons of newsprint. The 10 states using less were:

Idaho	11,162
Maine	19,151
Mississippi	22,747
Montana	11,369
Nevada	18,151
New Mexico	15,023
North Dakota	10,721
South Dakota	9,150
Vermont	5,893
Wyoming	3,455

Presence of a major city makes the big difference between states which might rival one another in population, Louisiana, for instance, used 102,483 tons of newsprint, three times Arkansas' consumption, largely because of New Orleans, which drew metropolitan advertising and built up many pages, plus big circulation, combining to take a big chunk of paper.

As might be expected, New York state used the most paper, 1,220,548 tons, California being second with 1,012,707.

High Water Closes Two State Roads

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas State Police reported Sunday that two highways in the state had been closed because of high water.

The report said Arkansas 25 between Lynn and Strawberry and Arkansas 230 at Saffell were closed due to flooding from the Black River. Both highways are in Lawrence County.

Prison Farm Escapees Recaptured

STAR CITY, Ark. (AP) — Two Cummins Prison Farm inmates were captured near here Sunday following their escape Friday.

Officials identified the men as George Overton, 27, of North Little Rock and Marvin T. Russell, 32, of Westwego, La.

One-Car Wreck Proves Fatal

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Delwin Phillips, 32, of Alhambra, died Sunday in a one-car accident near here Friday.

Russia Fires 8 Satellites on One Carrier

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union today announced the launching of eight unmanned satellites on a single carrier rocket—the largest experiment reported in the Cosmos program.

An official announcement gave no clue to the purpose of the complex space shot.

The spacecraft, numbered Cosmos 336 through Cosmos 343, were launched Saturday and were "equipped with scientific apparatus designated for space research," the announcement said.

"The equipment aboard the satellites is functioning normally," it added.

There was no indication whether further information would be released on the experiment. Normally launchings in the Cosmos program are announced only in the most general terms, and no details of their work is revealed.

Cuba Claims Invaders Killed or Captured

MIAMI (AP) — Radio Havana said today that Cuba had destroyed a 13-man invasion force with every man killed or captured 10 days after the guerrillas landed.

The broadcast by Fidel Castro's official voice did not say how many of the guerrillas were killed and how many were still alive, but reported: "Not one escaped and all the arms, the bullets and the equipment were seized."

None of the officials of Alpha 66, a militantly anti-Castro exile group in Miami which said last week it had landed a guerrilla force in Cuba, was available for comment.

Castro first announced April 19 that an invasion force had landed on his island. In a communique over his own signature — an unusual move — the bearded prime minister said the landing party was composed of mercenaries who came to Cuba from the United States and were armed with guns of the "Yankee Army."

Alpha 66 countered that the guerrillas were Cuban peasants who had gone home to fight to liberate their homeland from communism.

The guerrillas put ashore April 17, Radio Havana said, near Baracoa in Oriente Province on the eastern end of Cuba. Communist radio broadcasts monitored in Miami, since then reported a series of battles that trimmed the invasion force to only four men.

Two of the remaining men were captured Friday and two more were seized on Sunday.

Castro forces suffered no casualties in the final encounters, the broadcast said.

Two Tornadoes Touch Near Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — Two tornadoes touched down near here Saturday night, but no one was injured and police said the only damage reported was some uprooted trees.

Officials said the funnel clouds were first sighted near New Boston, Tex., and they dipped out of the sky in open farm land between New Boston and Texarkana.

Officials in Texarkana, Ark., said the tornadoes apparently did not touch down there, but high winds and heavy rain were reported.

NLR Seeks to Restore Program

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A resolution will be considered tonight by the North Little Rock City Council asking President Nixon to have the city's Model Cities Program restored.

The federal Housing and Urban Development Department had notified Mayor William F. "Casey" Laman March 31 that the city had been dropped from the program.

All Sides Lash Nixon's Welfare Program as Hearings Are Started

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's welfare reform program is under fire from liberals and conservatives on the Senate Finance Committee as the panel prepares to open public hearings this week on the legislation.

Some members say the President and Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Robert H. Finch appear to be presenting the House-approved plan on a take-it-or-leave-it basis.

But these senators, including Democrats and Republicans, say the bill will get a long and

Disposed Head of Cambodia Meets Enemy

SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong radio reported today that Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's deposed chief of state, met Friday and Saturday "at the Vietnamese-Lao-Lao-Chinese border" with North Vietnamese Premier Pham Van Dong.

Prince Souphanouvong of the Communist Pathet Lao movement and Nguyen Huu Tho, head of the Viet Cong's political arm, the National Liberation Front, also attended the meeting, the broadcast said.

A communique issued after the meeting also denounced "the role of the Saigon henchmen of the United States in Phnom Penh and the U.S. henchmen in Vientiane and said that the U.S. and its henchmen cannot escape complete defeat."

The four leaders appealed to all Indo-Chinese people "to increase their unity and push ahead with the struggle against the common enemy, which is the U.S. imperialists and their henchmen."

The meeting, said to have been held at Sihanouk's initiative, raised the possibility that the Cambodian prince may be preparing an attempt to return to power.

Bullet Fired From Cylinder and Not Gun

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A ballistics test by Little Rock police has shown a bullet which killed a man Saturday was discharged from a loaded cylinder and was not fired by a gun.

Little Rock Detective Lt. John Terry said that Charles Smith, 36, of Little Rock was killed in an east side pool hall when a loaded cylinder from a pistol fell from his pocket and discharged. The bullet struck Smith in the heart, Terry said.

Terry said the accident occurred as Smith stooped over to pick up a pool cue and the loaded cylinder fell out of his pocket, striking the floor. He said that only one of the five bullets in the cylinder discharged.

Smith's body was found on the sidewalk near the pool hall where he had apparently been dragged following the accident, Terry said.

Repair Shop Entered, 30 Cents Missing

Safe, Lock & Key repair shop was entered Sunday night and so far as could be determined only 30 cents was missing. The establishment was Oliver Mills' shop next to the Star building.

The thieves broke out a rear window to gain entrance and left the back door open, City police are investigating.

Miss Russellville Is Selected

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Sherry Diane Dixon, 18, a senior at Russellville High School, was selected Miss Russellville Saturday night.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Dixon of Russellville.

hard look at the hearings starting Wednesday, and undoubtedly many changes will be made. Finch has said he will recommend a veto if the Senate liberalizes welfare reform beyond the Nixon recommendations.

The measure as now written would convert the much-criticized aid to dependent children program into a family assistance plan and guarantee a yearly cash income of at least $1,600 to a family of four. The working poor would be included for the first time.

Finance Committee conservatives say the administration estimate of $4.4 billion additional annual cost is too low, and the provisions designed to channel the welfare recipients into jobs are of dubious worth.

On the other hand, liberals insist the new benefits are far too low. They say the plan will leave millions of Americans still in poverty and not give real help to states hard pressed to meet the costs of welfare, education and many other programs.

However, some of the Finance members concede privately the net effect of the criticism from the right and left may be a canceling-out process so the bill will clear the Senate about in the form Nixon submitted it.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., the committee chairman, says his group will take its time with the legislation but he is confident a bill will be approved by Finance and pass the Senate.

Long is one of the strong critics of the plan. He says it "does not solve the problem—it just makes it cost $4 billion more."

Accidents in State Claim Eight Lives

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Eight lives were lost last weekend on Arkansas' highways.

Police said Gilda Peble Miller, 33, of Oklahoma City, Okla., was killed Sunday when her car struck a bridge on Arkansas 270, about three miles west of Pencil Bluff (Montgomery County).

Mrs. Miller's car struck the bridge as she attempted to avoid hitting a truck making a turn.

Robert Oswald, 29, of Dardanelle was killed in the Dardanelle city limits. Police said the accident occurred Saturday when Oswald apparently lost control of his truck.

Sunday Delwin Phillips, 32, of Alhambra died of injuries received in a one-car accident near Pine Bluff Friday.

Police said a father and his two sons drowned Saturday when their truck stalled in high water on a flooded gravel road near Wynne.

Authorities identified the victims as Carl Tarkington, 52, James Tarkington, 13 and William Tarkington, 21, all of Cherry Valley, north of Wynne.

Officials said the Tarkingtons apparently overcame by gas fumes as their truck sank in water which rose six feet over the seat.

Local School Paper, Writer Are Honored

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas High School Press Association wound up a two-day meeting here Saturday with the presentation of awards to winning school newspapers.

Newspapers rated superior in the general excellence category were The Tiger, Little Rock Central; The Knob, Bald Knob High; The Trident, Jacksonville High; Hope Hi-Lights, Hope High; The Emissary, Forrest City High; The Wildcat Scratch, Pine Bluff Watson Chapel; The Yellowjacket, Wynne High; The Mustang, Little Rock Southwest Junior High and The Cougar Print, Fort Smith Chaffin Junior High.

Richard Sellers of Little Rock Central and Ralph Routon of Hope received $100 journalism scholarships.

About 450 students attended the convention.

Would Limit Arms Sent to Cambodia

By JAMES PHILLIPS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's No. 2 Republican leader, Michigan's Robert P. Griffin, has called for limited U.S. arms shipments to the beleaguered Cambodian government as a way to help shorten the war in Vietnam.

However, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, said shipments of arms to help the poorly-equipped Cambodian army fight Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops would only result in America getting "sucked in" another Vietnam-style conflict.

Both senators made their remarks Sunday, the day after Secretary of State William P. Rogers urged other nations to consider action against North Vietnam for violating international accords by escalating the level of fighting in Cambodia. Rogers said the Cambodian fighting is not a civil war but the result of a foreign invasion.

"There are 40,000 aggressors

Court Agrees to Take Up Abortion Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to hear arguments on the constitutionality of the District of Columbia's abortion law.

The Justice Department had appealed to the high court when the law was nullified by a federal judge here. The review could seal the fate of abortion laws across the land.

The local law had prohibited abortions except when "necessary for the preservation of the mother's health."

The hearing will be held next fall.

Last November, U.S. Dist. Judge Gerhard A. Gesell said the law was invalid because the word "health" was not defined. That is, he reasoned, physicians could not know what they could do legally and what they were forbidden to do.

The Justice Department, in appealing, said the ruling freed all licensed physicians in the capital to perform abortions on pregnant women for any reason.

Thirty-six states have abortion laws but they are not all alike.

Several states are in the process of liberalizing their laws or have already done so.

Angus Meet Slated Here on April 30

The need for bringing Angus breeders together in an effort to create better local, state, and national relationship has stimulated a Southwest Arkansas Get-Acquainted Meeting scheduled for the Diamond Cafeteria in Hope, on Thursday, April 30.

The program which will start at 7:30 p.m., includes speakers and demonstrations of an informative nature highlighting the organization and activities at various Angus association levels.

Featured on the program is Joe Hamilton of Harrison, president of the Arkansas Angus Association, speaking on the role his group plays in the promotion and expansion of Angus throughout the state.

Waymon Ashley, Texas field representative for the American Angus Association, and past secretary-fieldman for the Texas Angus Association will discuss the "Potential Effects of Local Association's To An Area."

A slide presentation of Angus tours and national association activities will be presented by Tom Cook, field representative for the Arkansas area.

Following refreshments, the latest film released by the American Angus Association, "Production Records—Your Biggest Advantage," will be presented. All interested cattlemen are invited to attend.

U.S. Forces in Europe at Lowest Level in 20 Years, Pentagon Says

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has trimmed its forces in Europe to about 300,000 men, the lowest level in 20 years, according to new Pentagon figures.

This is 10,000 below the last official figure and the smallest American force in Europe since 1950 when it stood at 145,000 men.

The newest reductions resulted from streamlining of support and administrative personnel, not by trimming combat strength, Pentagon authorities said.

The drop from 310,000 to 300,000 occurred over a span of months and followed similar cutbacks aimed at saving money and reducing the gold flow.

The last U.S. reduction of combat elements in Europe was in 1968 when two Army brigades and some other units were brought back, although these units technically remain earmarked for NATO.

The United States has pledged not to remove any more combat forces from Europe through mid-1971. And there are indications any withdrawals after that time will be held to a relatively small number.

Although the Nixon administration is headed on a new foreign policy course designed to minimize American overseas commitments, there appears to be substantial sentiment among both civilian and military leaders to maintain the American military presence in Europe at as high a level as possible.

Army leaders are known to be in a mood to fight any substantial trimming of combat elements in Europe, believing their forces facing the Iron Curtain are close to the lowest level consistent with an ability to hold back any significant Communist thrust long enough to allow help to reach Europe from the United States and for NATO countries to mobilize.

The generals place small faith in forces based in the United States for immediate use in an emergency situation in Europe. They claim that forces present on the line are the only ones that count in such a situation.

A partial U.S. pullback from Korea, perhaps next year, is considered more likely than combat force reduction in Europe.

The United States now has about 64,000 troops in Korea, chiefly in two Army divisions.

Escapee Still at Large

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — Authorities were still searching for a 23-year-old Cummins Prison Farm inmate who escaped from the prison Saturday.

A spokesman said George Duty, who was serving a three-year sentence for burglary from Jackson County, escaped on foot.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

Edward Lester, Little Rock attorney and son of Mrs. C.D. Lester of Hope, was one of two graduates of Hendrix College who received a Distinguished Alumnus Award at the Alumni Day luncheon in Conway Saturday.

He is vice-chairman of the Hendrix Board of Trustees and is a member of the Little Rock law firm of Lester & Shultz. He received a BA degree from Hendrix in 1943 and his law degree from the U of A in 1948. He has been state representative from Hempstead County, president of the Arkansas Conference of Local Bar Associations and vice-chairman of the state Turnpike Authority.

The Arkansas Federation of Republican Women will begin a five-day membership tour Monday, April 27 and the areas to be visited include Hope. They'll be at the Town and Country restaurant at 12 noon on Wednesday, April 29.

Friends of Dub Davis will be glad to learn he is doing well following surgery at St. Vincent's Hospital in Little Rock.

Two Planes Shot Down, 10 Missing

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today announced the loss of a four-engine American gunship over southern Laos and a U.S. Army helicopter near the besieged Dak Seang Special Forces camp. Ten Americans were killed, four were missing and one was rescued.

It was the first AC130 gunship reported shot down in the war. The U.S. Command said it was hit by enemy ground fire last Wednesday in the lower panhandle of Laos, apparently while on a mission over the Ho Chi Minh Trail. Six of the crewmen were killed, four were missing and one was rescued with minor injuries, a spokesman said.

The AC130 is the gunship version of the C130 cargo and transport plane used to haul troops and war materials. The AC130 carries four miniguns and four 20mm cannons.

The plane can make effective strikes despite conditions of poor visibility that often prevail in Laos. It uses high intensity lights and flares plus advanced top-secret detection devices.

A UH1 Army helicopter was shot down Saturday near Dak Seang, seven miles from the Laotian border, and all four crewmen were killed, the command said. Spokesmen said it was the 14th American aircraft shot down supporting the South Vietnamese and their American Green Beret advisers who have been under siege since April 1. In all, 17 American crewmen have been killed and 14 wounded in aircraft supporting Dak Seang.

The U.S. Command said announcement of the two aircraft losses was delayed while search missions were under way.

U.S. headquarters also reported 17 enemy rocket and mortar attacks during the 24 hours ending at 8 a.m. today, with two Americans killed and 14 wounded.

In a ground action, 10 to 15 North Vietnamese sappers moving under the cover of a mortar barrage blasted their way into an American artillery base 46 miles northwest of Saigon. Hurling dynamite bombs into bunkers and firing rocket grenades, they killed four men from the 25th Infantry Division and wounded 12 others. Headquarters said the attack did "moderate" damage to the base, and one enemy sapper was reported killed.

Adults Home Economics Class to Meet

The third in a series of Adult Education Home Economics Sewing classes will be at Hope High School Monday night, April 27, at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Dora Russell will give the demonstration on curtain and drapery making in J-2, the Home Economics Clothing laboratory.

Mrs. Estelle Spearman, the Home Economics instructor, in charge urges everyone to take advantage of this opportunity.

Bloodmobile Returning to Hope May 4

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will return to Hope Monday, May 4th. The location this time will be the Unity Baptist Church, 5th and Pine Street. The hours will be 12 noon to 8:00 p.m. Has-kell Jones, Bloodmobile Chairman, would like to remind Hempstead County that only 125 pints are needed to reach our year goal. If this amount is obtained it will make the first time in six years that Hempstead County will have given as much as they have used in any fiscal year. That date again, Monday, May 4th, 12 Noon to 8:00 p.m. at the Unity Baptist Church in Hope.

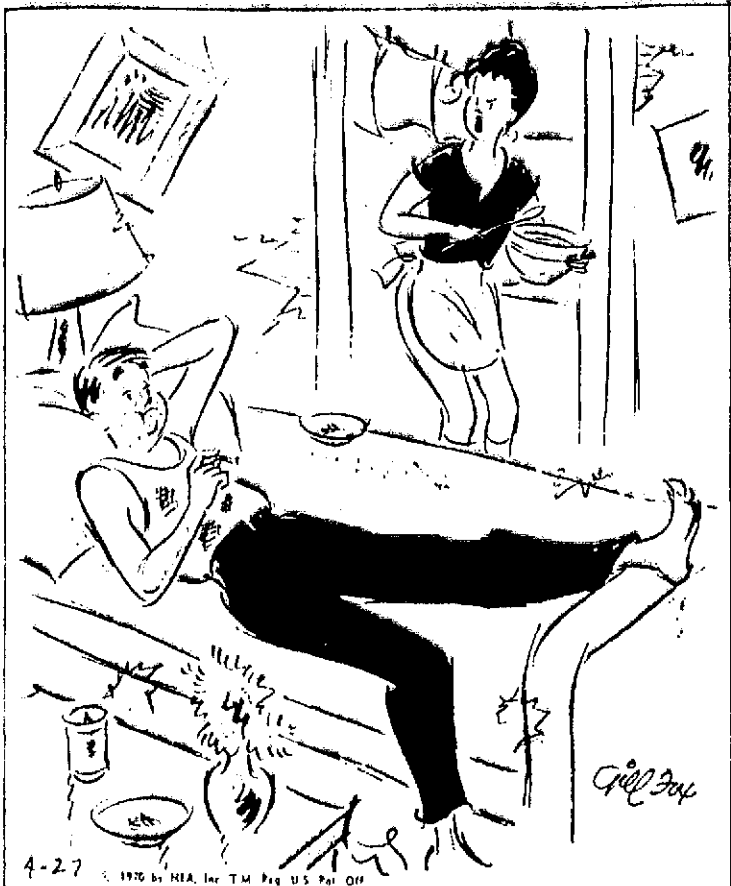

Friends of Rex Bobo will be glad to learn he is out of intensive care and in Room 4291 following open heart surgery April 22 at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas.

Weekend police reports shows four arrested on traffic violations, one liquor violation, one license, six for drunkenness, three for driving while intoxicated, one minor arrested for possessing intoxicants, two accidents. This brings the year total to 79 accidents with 13 injuries.

Emmet Honor Graduates Are Named

Emmet High School announces its honor graduates for the 1969-

DIANA WARREN

ROBERT WHETSTONE

70 school year. They are Diana Lynn Warren, Valedictorian, and Robert Whetstone, Salutatorian. Diana Lynn Warren is the daughter of Mrs. Edith Warren of Emmet and Mr. Everett Warren of Prescott. This year she served as Editor of the Yearbook, President of FHA, and Vice-President of the Student Council. She has played basketball for the past six years on the Eagle basketball team. She attends the First United Methodist Church of Emmet. She was chosen as one of the outstanding teenagers of America from her school and was a Merits Who's Who among High School students. Robert Whetstone is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M.W. Whetstone of Emmet. During his high school years he has received Awards of Honor for Advancement in Algebra, Geometry, English, Science, Physics and over-all scholarship. In the Fall of 1967, he was selected by the faculty to represent Emmet High School at the Arkansas Junior Science and Humanities Symposium in Little Rock. He was also first-place winner in a science fair at Emmet High in the Junior Division for an experiment in electricity. Robert's hobby is electronics and in that field he builds circuits and repairs radios. He is also interested in Chemistry and plans to attend the United Electronics Institute in Little Rock and hopes to enter a field of electronics research. This year he is secretary of the Senior Class. Baccalaureate Services will be held Sunday, May 24, 1970 at 2:30 p.m. in the High School Auditorium. Rev. Calvin Miller of the First United Methodist Church will be the speaker. Commencement will be Friday, May 29, 1970 at 8:00 p.m. in the High School Auditorium. Mr. Charles "Chuck" Honey, State Representative and Attorney at Law, Prescott, will be the speaker.

Lt. General V.P. Mock, left, Commanding General, First U.S. Army, conducts retirement and awards ceremony at Fort Sheridan. LTG Mock congratulates Lt. Col. Alvie R. Calhoun, recipient of the Meritorious Service Medal awarded by direction of the President. He has distinguished himself

Sex Counselors Think Plan to Up Marriages

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — Two pioneers in sex research say they believe they have developed a method to prevent many thousands of marriages from breaking up over sexual problems. It involves a 14-day intensive course of counseling concerning a couple's sexual difficulties, with suggestions frequently given concerning specific sexual behavior. Problems include impotence in men and women's failure to reach orgasm. Over the last 11 years, 510 couples have received such therapy, with eight out of 10 men and women overcoming their sexual difficulties, Dr. William H. Masters and Virginia E. Johnson write in a new book, "Human Sexual Inadequacy," published today. (Little, Brown & Co. $12.50) Furthermore, about this same proportion of beneficial results has been maintained among people who were kept track of for five years or more. Among 155 of these couples, three were divorced and four had filed for legal separation when they came for treatment, but five years later all seven couples were back together. After the counseling, three other couples had divorced and one had filed for separation five years later. But "the low divorce incidence in the sexually reconstituted marital units is of real interest, particularly when nationally reported levels of divorce incidence are contemplated," Dr. Masters and Mrs. Johnson say. Sex problems are a major factor in the epidemic of American divorces—with one in three marriages winding up in divorce—and by some estimates maybe half of American marriages are either already "sexually dysfunctional" or will be in the near future, the authors say. Dr. Masters and Mrs. Johnson are well known for their studies in which physiological and anatomical observations were made of men and women responding to sexual stimulation in the laboratory at the Reproductive Biology Research Foundation in St. Louis. These findings were reported in their first book, "Human Sexual Response." Some of that information has been applied in counseling people referred to the Masters-Johnson team by doctors, psychiatrists, ministers or other specialists. While their laboratory studies expanded knowledge of the physiology of sex, the marital counseling represented an effort to make more effective human use of increasing knowledge concerning sexuality. This includes psychological and emotional aspects of sex and hang-ups resulting from ignorance, myths and superstitions, and fears and anxieties, they explained. Among highlights of their new report: —In marital sexual difficulties, even if one spouse has the primary problem, "there is no such thing as an uninvolved while serving as member of Headquarters Fifth U.S. Army at Fort Sheridan, Ill. LTC Calhoun is retiring from active service after 21 years.

partner." And in their approach, "the marital relationship is considered the patient." —Fifty-seven persons referred for treatment were single or divorced. This posed a problem, for the clinical treatment requires a partner who can cooperate and help, "someone to hold onto, talk to, work with, learn from, be a part of, and above all else, give to and get from" during the two weeks of intensive therapy. The three women among the 57 single persons brought male friends as partners and 13 of the single men brought female friends. Thirteen women in the St. Louis area were selected out of 3 to volunteered to be "surrogate wives" for the other 4 men treated during the 11 years. After the therapy, 32 of these 41 men had resolved their problems, and 24 of them have since married, saying they are now happily married. —The fee for the two-week program now is $2,500 which includes counseling during the five-year followup period, but about 25 per cent of the patients pay nothing because they cannot afford it, and another 25 per cent pay a partial fee. The income helps support the $500,000-a-year budget of the foundations, which is planning to reinstate its laboratory for new neurophysiological studies of sex, including the effects of sexual activity on men and women who have had heart attacks, Dr. Masters said in an interview. The goal in treatment is not to tell people what is right or wrong in sexual relationships, but primarily how to help them re-establish communication between each other, Dr. Masters and Mrs. Johnson add. One early step, thus, is simply to ask them to touch each other.

Tony Curtis Caught With Marijuana

UXBRIDGE, England (AP) — American movie star Tony Curtis, who quit smoking tobacco several years ago, was fined $120 today for bringing marijuana into England. The 44-year-old actor arrived at the Uxbridge Magistrate's Court in a maroon Bentley limousine, but his lawyer asked for time to raise the fine. "You must not think that because Mr. Curtis is a leading international film star that he has plenty of money available," the lawyer told the court. "He like any other member of his profession has enormous taxes to pay which can create financial problems for him." The three magistrates gave Curtis a week to raise the money. The fine was half the one levied by a British court in February against another movie headliner, Italian director Michelangelo Antonioni, on the same charge. The maximum penalty is 10 years in jail or a $2,400 fine, but British judges are usually lenient in marijuana cases. Dressed in a neat gray business suit and yellow shirt, Curtis looked subdued as he pleaded guilty to the charge. His lawyer asked the magistrates to take into consideration "the tremendous strains and pressures" to which a star of Curtis' caliber was subjected. He also told the court the actor was a man of previous unimpeachable character.

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset Production at Halt at Iron Works

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Production is at a halt today at the Bath Iron Works, Bath, Maine, due to a shipbuilders strike. A strike against the Butte, Mont., public schools has been called and in New York negotiators remained at odds in contract talks between printers and four daily newspapers and between broadcast engineers and NBC. Some 2,000 shipbuilders walked off the job in Bath when their contract expired at midnight Sunday. Two months of talks, aided in the final week by federal mediators, failed to bring a settlement. The union rejected a proposal for a two-week extension which management said it needed to await Navy decision on the company's bid for a $3-billion destroyer contract. Operating engineers in Butte said they would strike this morning, creating the second major school strike in Butte in three weeks. A teachers' union spokesman said the 450 instructors in the system would honor the picket lines. The National Association of Broadcast Employees and Technicians rejected Sunday the latest contract offer from NBC, a $55 weekly wage increase over three years. The Contract expired March 31. The union said it hoped to resume talks with the network. Current top scale is $200. Talks between printers unions and the four daily New York papers were scheduled to resume today. Presidents of the 10 unions involved were scheduled to meet and a decision was expected on whether printers' chapel meetings at The New York Times would be lengthened. Chapel meetings during working hours have averaged 14½ hours of each 24 hours at the Times during the past week. The slow-down tactic has hurt the Times financially and it appeared possible that lengthening the meetings could cause a lock-out at the newspaper, triggering lockouts at the other papers in the Publishers Association as well. Wildcat walkouts in the trucking industry continued in Los Angeles, St. Louis, Cleveland and Akron, Ohio, despite a tentative national Teamsters Union settlement calling for $1.10 an hour wage increase in a three-year contract. In Chicago Sunday, several thousand striking truck drivers reaffirmed their demands for a $1.65 an hour pay hike already approved by some 2,000 employers in the Chicago area.
